

COMPARATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE LAW QUARTERLY

The Editorial Board of Comparative Constitutional Law & Administrative Law Quarterly (CALQ) is inviting submissions for Vol.1 No. 4 from legal academicians, professionals and students.

GENERAL THEME

The Journal attempts to initiate and foster academic dialogue concerning the subjects of Administrative Law and Constitutional Law keeping in mind a global perspective. While we urge that Articles envisage a comparative perspective involving any legal regime, Articles which identify key contemporary national issues having weight in the field of Constitutional and Administrative Law are also invited. Manuscripts in the category of Notes must identify a specific issue related to Constitutional or Administrative law. Again, we hearten that pertinent contemporary debates relating to policy and practice under the national regime be identified. We also invite Case Comments with respect to recent judgments of significance in the field of Constitutional law with a comparative analysis of precedents or issues in other legal regimes.
